Most beloved abhayans!

Signature page

Loving Greetings to you. It is almost 18 months back, I shared my thoughts from this page when I decided to quite my full time employment as Company Secretary of NCC Infrastructure Holdings Ltd., (NCC Group) during November 2012. Since then, I changed my area to Practicing side and with the kind support of CS PS Rao, Trustee of abhaya Foundation, I am able to serve GVPR Group as its Corporate Law Consultant. The Management is very kind enough to understand my passion in serving the country very graciously permitted to be available with them 3 days in a week. Further CS M Adinarayana, My Guide, Friend & Philosopher working at NATCO Pharma Ltd., Hyderabad and Sri K V Ramakrishna, Kotak PE Fund, Mumbai stood beside me in getting my survival. The team from BK Associates started caring me by assisting in the Professional work. There are many other abhayans who are helping me in leading my life.

Having decided to quite full time job, my thought was to make myself available for the abhaya Home of Happiness and also for community at large. I tried my best to dedicate myself for the cause day in and day out... though, good results to be seen in the community work across the country... desired result are yet to be achieved with abhaya Home of Happiness.

abhaya Home of Happiness and its Mission can be accomplished only when we have a team of people start sparing their little time for the cause. In addition to this, we tried our best to employ Administrator for abhaya Home. But, our trails yet to succeed. We appeal each abhayan to please refer suitable candidates for Resident Administrator. So that the planned activities can be carried out there. Presently there are 10 destitute people being taken care and we wish to increase this with at least by another 10 people. Moreover, we are very actively thinking of initiating vocational training for unemployed youth over there at Home.

Further, abhaya succeeded in propagating the cause of community work across South Indian States with its CSR Seminars at Telangana, Karnataka & Tamilnadu.

At personal level My health is becoming a concern day by day due to hectic schedules and ... WITH PRAYERS, I am appealing all abhayans to be little considerate in doing their bit for the sake of our country. Your kind support will make me to feel recharged for rest of my life and very soon, I will be proceeding further to live up for my country more completely.

Atal Bihari Vajpayee... A True Ratna for Bharat

He is a highly respected politician who served as the 10th Prime Minister of India.

AWARDS

1992 - Padma Vibhushan
1994 - Lokmanya Tilak Award
1994 - Best Parliamentarian Award
2014 – Bharatha Ratna

Personal Life & Legacy

Atal Bihari Vajpayee was born into a middle-class family in Gwalior. His father was Krishna Bihari Vajpayee, a school teacher and poet, and his mother was Krishna Devi. He attended the Saraswati Shishu Mandir and later went to Victoria College from where he graduated with distinction in Hindi, English and Sanskrit. He enrolled at DAV College, Kanpur to complete his post graduation and earned his M.A. in Political science. He was a patriot at heart and participated in India's struggle for freedom even as a student and edited several nationalist Hindi newspapers. Vajpayee is a bachelor. He has one adopted daughter, Namita, and is very close to his friends and relatives. He has a deep love for the Hindi language and has written several poems. He is nearing 90 years of age and suffers from various health problems including dementia and diabetes.

About Atalji

Atal Bihari Vajpayee is a highly respected veteran politician who had served as the Prime Minister of India in three non-consecutive terms. He was a member of the Indian Parliament for almost five decades; in fact he is the only parliamentarian who had been elected from four different states at different times, namely, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat and Delhi. He made his foray into politics during the pre-independence era when he took part in the Quit India Movement which led to his arrest and imprisonment. A true patriot, he was one of the founding members of the erstwhile Bharatiya Jana Sangh, an Indian nationalist party. A multi-faceted personality, he is a very skilled poet with several published poems. Also well known is his love for his native language Hindi—he was the first person to deliver a speech in Hindi at the U.N. General assembly. He is very famous for his oratory skills and held several prestigious positions in Indian politics before being elected the Prime minister. His first stint as the Prime Minister of India lasted for just 13 days. He was again sworn in for the second time after a couple of years. This time too, his government lasted for just over a year. His third stint as the Prime Minister was his most successful one and he served a full term of five years in this position.

Major Works

Atalji during his tenure of Prime Minister of India... stood by the Country by Nuclear tests conducted in 1998 during his reign unambiguously established India as a nuclear state and the country was able to develop a minimum credible deterrent to ward off threats to its security. The Kargil War between India and Pakistan took place between May and July 1999. By the end of the war, the Indian Army and Air force had recaptured the areas infiltrated by the Pakistani militants. The Kargil victory cemented the reputation of Vajpayee as a strong and able leader of the nation. The National Highways Develop Project (NHDP) and Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) were two projects that were very close to his heart. NHDP involves connecting the four major cities of Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai and Kolkata. PMGSY is a nationwide plan to provide good all-weather road connectivity to unconnected villages. He is highly respected for the economic reforms and privatization campaigns he brought about during his tenure as the Prime Minister of India. His diplomacy and leadership while handling political issues during the Kargil War and terrorist attacks further strengthened his image as a wise and capable leader of India. abhaya feels proud to have such Diamonds in Bharat... He is true patriot... a Prime Minister with a difference made every Indian feel proud of him and his work.

- Atal Bihari Vajpayee, on whom the Bharat Ratna is conferred on 27th March 2015 by President Pranab Mukherjee, comes after Nehru as India's most admired Prime Minister.
- Unlike Indira and Rajiv, he did not have the advantage of belonging to a "dynasty". His rise in Indian politics was entirely due to his own innate talent, striving, struggle and sacrifice.
- He became the first genuinely non-Congress leader to win the people's mandate to lead India.
- Vajpayee as the leader of the Jana Sangh was even then a widely admired national leader.
- In terms of the power of oratory, no other Prime Minister, not even Nehru, comes anywhere close to him.
- His meetings used to attract huge crowds even in non-Hindi areas. The fact that he is also a top-notch poet contributed to people's adulation for him.
- He had the rare ability to command the respect of even his political opponents. Anna Durai, who led a powerful anti-Hindi agitation in Tamil Nadu, once said that he would welcome Hindi if the language was as charming as the one spoken by "my friend Vajpayee".
- Vajpayee was one of the heroes of the anti-Emergency struggle (1975-77) that restored democracy in India.
- The crowning glory of his Prime Ministership was not that he made India a nuclear weapons power. Nor was it the many landmark development projects he initiated. Rather, it was the sincerity and persistence with which he tried to normalize the situation in Jammu &

Kashmir and to normalize India's relations with Pakistan. Despite Pakistan's betrayal in Kargil, he continued in his mission to establish peaceful and good neighborly ties with Pakistan. He also established a framework for resolution of the border dispute with China. That framework, which has been carried forward by the governments of Dr Manmohan Singh and Modi, promises to yield a fruitful result. Truly, the Bharat Ratna has been given to a Jewel of India. - abhaya Team

Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) is for introduction of audit of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activity. "We want that the government should introduce CSR audit for a micro-level monitoring of the compliance," ICSI President Atul H Mehta told ICSI Vice-President Mamata Binani said in the secretarial audit it will be seen whether basic compliance had taken place or not. "With audit we can make an in depth analysis of compliance," she said.

Government has formed a six-member panel to look into ways to strengthen monitoring of CSR activities under the companies law. ICSI will send its own recommendations to the ministry of company affairs on CSR. "MCA had asked our views and inputs on CSR and we will be sending the same " Mehta said.

Corporate Social Responsibility Hub created in eastern region of India

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the United Nations Children Fund (UNICEF) India Country Office and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) Eastern Region has been signed on Friday on the establishment of the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Hub for Corporate Sector engagement in the Eastern Region of India.

Covering five states including Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Odisha and West Bengal, this Regional CSR Hub aims to strengthen knowledge base and build capacity of the corporate sector's involvement in CSR, with one of the focus areas being women and children from the Children's Rights and Business Principals perspective. The Hub will act as a knowledge centre for holistic CSR activities, and as a think-tank, and play an advisory role for CII members in the region.

Corporates can better understand the needs of rural masses, just as they do about their consumers, says Kasturi Rangan of Harvard Business School, IIM

Prof V Kasturi Rangan is the Malcolm P. McNair Professor of Marketing and the co-chairman of Social Enterprise Initiative at the Harvard Business School. Rangan was recently at the Indian Institute of Management - Ahmedabad (IIM-A) to conduct a workshop on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). Rangan, an alumnus of IIM-A, has authored several books and working papers on CSR and its strategic importance for the companies and believes that Indian corporates have an opportunity to serve the broader stakeholders under the compulsory 2 per cent CSR spend as mandated in the new Companies Act, than keeping a narrower motive of serving the shareholders with profit numbers.

Companies are very good at understanding what customers want and what they don't want. So, working with the community is almost similar, they can understand what rural India wants. Lot of Indian companies do good work but there are even more Indian companies that don't pay attention to it; it is not because their profit motive clashes. But it is more likely that these companies have not taken the service to the community seriously. They look upon themselves as serving their shareholders' interest first. But they have to broaden their understanding to also serve the stakeholder and the community. For this, you don't have to compromise on your profit. It's a more complex business model and this understanding a lot of Indian companies don't have. This is an opportunity for these companies to take up the job under the 2 per cent mandate.

Corporations may not know much about issues of sanitation, primary healthcare. But corporations know a lot about processes. They can do six-sigma. They can bring the efficiency by cutting costs and maximizing effectiveness. They know how to communicate, and influence behavior change. They know all this because they do marketing. Corporates can go to communities and teach them health and hygiene practices through communication methods. Business and managerial methods, these corporations are very good at. They know how to get efficiency, effectiveness so they can bring the same discipline to address these issues. And they can use the government and the NGO sector, and act as a catalyst for change.

Nasscom asks firms to use CSR funds for Digital India

Nasscom Foundation, the not-for-profit arm of information technology (IT) industry body Nasscom, on Wednesday suggested to its member companies to spend a higher portion of their corporate social responsibility (CSR) funds towards the government's 'Make in India' and Digital India campaigns.

"A lot of companies are not imaginative enough on CSR activities," Ganesh Natarajan, chairman, Nasscom Foundation, said during an event here. "We have a group working towards this where large companies can give us money to spend towards CSR activities."

Among the steps he suggested could be used by companies towards such initiatives, he said, was to spend on skill building of more hands than required. For instance, instead of training 500 persons that a company may need to recruit, he said, it can train 800 and still recruit only the required hands. Spending on skill building of the additional persons would help create a pool of skilled employees with higher opportunity of employability.

Other areas that Nasscom Foundation suggested for spending CSR funds were education, digital literacy and skill development. "This alternative pool is largely focused on under-served people," quipped in Shrikant Sinha, chief executive officer of Nasscom Foundation.

Wildlife finds CSR funding

Even as not-for-profit organizations working with domesticated animals struggle to find funding, private companies are showing greater interest in helping fund wildlife conservation. About a month ago the Muthoot Group, last week Sony India Pvt. Ltd and on Wednesday Tata Capital Housing Finance Ltd, a subsidiary of Tata Capital Ltd, signed up with WWF India, a not-for-profit working with endangered species and conservation, under their corporate social responsibility (CSR) mandate to protect wildlife species that are under threat in India. Tata Capital Housing will start by giving Rs.40 lakh to WWF India in the first year (2014-2015), and thereafter contribute a total of Rs.3 crore over the next three years until 2018, supporting projects to conserve the Great Indian bustard (desert national park in Jaisalmer and Barmer, Rajasthan), red panda (in the community-owned forests of western Arunachal Pradesh) and one-horned rhinoceros (Laokhowa-Borachapori wildlife sanctuary, Assam). The Muthoot Group has committed to work with elephant projects in six states for a year and will donate about Rs.50 lakh under CSR for this activity. Animal welfare did not figure in the Companies Act of 2013, which mandated that firms devote at least 2% of their three-year average profit towards CSR. But in February 2014, the ministry of corporate affairs included animal welfare in its revised policy after receiving feedback from stakeholders such as animal welfare organizations.

I was able to accommodate KMR at office for 2 nights, as it was getting very difficult for Dad due to his current health. But to my relief, KMR stayed properly both nights, got up early and had bath and got dressed properly. Worked reasonably well, cooked his own rice in his rice cooker that I got him, and took his medicines. While on surface it is making progress, it is surely a long recovery process given the beating he has taken for so many years. He is back today to Home for a few days. We are shutdown for 3 days for the Sri Rama Navami break, and will resume on Tuesday, I will get him back after I find another accommodation nearby. We think sometimes that poverty is only being hungry, naked and homeless. The poverty of being unwanted, unloved and uncared for is the greatest poverty. We must start in our own homes to remedy this kind of poverty. - Mother Teresa

Please give me hands of Help

I read your monthly news update and particularly felt the pain of a 'middle class man' appeal whose father is undergoing dialysis. I can testify that every sentence and situation he wrote is true as one of my own family members is undergoing the dialysis treatment on own expenses for many years. I humbly request you to help that family in whatever better way you can (like discounts on the medicines/dialysis/tests etc., costs). No matter how much we donate, it can't help them in long term as having received some discounts on the treatment expenditure. Dialysis patients problem may not look as life threatening as cancer patients but, their treatment expenditure and the prolonged treatment is a killer in itself. Thank you for considering this submission and wish you good luck in your missions !! - A Kavita.

Mission Teena

We at abhaya are able to pool Rs.1.20 lakh till now with the help of YuvaOhja Voluntary Organization and many friends of abhaya!!Teena completed her treatment at NTR Cancer Hospital, Hyderabad and now free from cancer and heading back to Gujarat with all smiles ... especially toBalachandraSunku sir for all the support !! -

From bottom of my heart I want to thank you all for the generous support from every one of you once again. Every rupee given by you had counted and this resulted smiles on faces of Teena and her family. I am really happy to be part of this cause and I must admit there is no other work which can bring us more satisfaction in life other than working selflessly for the needy.

Thanks a lot to Abhaya without whom this wouldnot have been possible and I wouldnot have gone this far to help someone !! Special thanks toabhaya which is there always by my side supporting me as a rock !! Please keep supporting abhaya in doing the good work and most importantly to genuine people !! Hope the needy gets the support from good people and good people help the poor !! :) - A Raghava, ADP, Hyderabad (Volunteer - abhaya/ YuvaOjha)

In that blood examination they found the 40% Lymph Blasts (platelets are blasting). That report shown to doctor and he confirmed that is leukemia is came back. To know the percentage of damage of bone marrow and some other information they suggested the bone marrow biopsy in addition to that some more tests are also suggested. Those are liver functioning tests, kidney functioning test ,CUE, and Vitamine B12 test these are normal and bone marrow report will come after next three days. Today also went to hospital for further tests. Doctor suggested bone marrow transplant. Total money is finished for tests. Still One test is balance which is Swathi & her brother bone marrow matching test. That is costly around Rs.42,000/-. Please help me something. - Manda Venkateswarlu, Asst Professor, TKR Engineering College, Hyderabad.

Mission Satya Karthik

Satya Karthik is 3 years old. His father Satyanarayana is working in fire department. Even at the age of 2 years, he was not speaking, so the parents consulted doctors to figure out the reason. After tests, Doctors told that the boy is suffering with hearing loss and Cochlear implantation should be done to him in order to cure him. The estimation is about 7Lakhs and they got Rs.3 Lakhs and called abhaya for remaining amount. As abhaya took up three such operations, planning to take up this as well. So asked them to come to Hyderabad for further treatment.

Mission Harish

Master Pokapudi Harish, aged 4 years is suffering with liver failure and doctors at Global Hospitals suggested them to transplant liver. His father is a constable and could not afford the expenses. Total estimation given by doctors is about Rs.20 Lakhs. They are trying all the means like CM and PM relief fund. Also appealed abhaya foundation to help to the possible extent. We are trying to speak with Hospital for possible discount and also for immediate relief if needed.

Mission Saipriya

Saipriya, is recovering slowly and steadily at Macherla under the kind care of her grandparents and parents. She is gaining much needed body weight since she had surgery to her back bone at Kamineni Hyderabad. The grandfather being illiterate and not connected to email... he will be calling abhaya Team every now and then informing about baby's well being and progress. abhaya wish to stand by this girl for some more time with its monthly support of Rs.5,000/-. There is a need for love and care to such people in the country. We are sure with abhaya at their end, she will gain all the health and live like a normal girl in months to come. - abhaya TEAM.

Mission Hariprasad

Hariprasad joined back in Sweekar for Physiotherapy. He undergone two surgeries for both his legs and now the muscles were loosened. He need healthy food and regular exercise to stand on his own and walk slowly. Abhaya paid his two months fee at sweekar and following up with his mother on a regular basis. Though they are residing very far, they are very regular at treatment. We hope he will get energy soon and walk on his own.

Mission Bhargavi (Request for financial assistance for blood cancer patient)

With no other alternatives in sight, I would like to bring the following to your kind notice with an anticipation to receive necessary help. I am born and brought up in Anantapur and now live with my wife G. Bhargavi and infant daughter aged 8-months. I am eking out my livelihood as a teacher in a private school earning a meager salary of Rs 5,000 a month. Unfortunately, my wife has been diagnosed in 2010 as a woman suffering with Chronic Myeloid Leukemia (CML). We had to go to St. Johns Hospital at Bangalore for treatment. The life saving treatment and tablets so far cost us little over Rs. 9 lakhs and we did not hesitate to borrow the money to fight the life threatening disease. However, the life saving tablets stopped responding for the last six months and the doctors at St. Johns Hospital made it clear that the only option to save my wife's life is to go for Bone Marrow Transplant (BMT). Doctors at St. Johns suggested to go to Narayana Hridayalaya at Bangalore for the transplant. Consequently, I have admitted my wife to Mazumdar Shah Medical Center, a unit of Narayana Hridayalaya, specialized in cancer treatment. The life saving treatment, according to the doctors at Narayana Hridayalaya, would cost about Rs 15,00,000 without any complications. The cost would go up if any complications develop at the time of transplant. Being a private school teacher, I have already incurred huge debts for providing treatment for my so far and all my resources are dried up. If I fail to save my wife, not only my life will be in mess, but an infant baby girl would be deprived of her mother's care and affection. Doctors suggested that the transplantation should be done within a month and I have left with no other option but to approach you for financial assistance. Hence, I request for your generosity and donate the transplantation expenditure and save my family from devastation. -

On February 5th I went to dentist due to some problem in oral cavity. There was overcrowding of teeth, so easily susceptible to cavity infections. So in order to avoid it I got removed my teeth and they fastened some metallic braces to my teeth. Nearly one week I have suffered with ulcers but got relived with proper medication. Everything was free of cost because it was done by a well known doctor.

Regarding family means I need to take care of my sister in her studies and improve her a lot. we are trying to pursue a seat in Sri Sathya Sai Institute of secondary high school. As Usual attending weekly medical camps and taking balvikas classes on Sundays.

abhaya Vignan School Closure - Update

abhaya Vignan school at Yerragunta, Kanekal Mandal, Ananthapur District was taken over by abhaya foundation in the year 2010-11. The school is in a village and most of the families are agricultural labours. abhaya foundation decided to provide valued education along with computers at a nominal fee. Even though it is nominal fee, most of the parents skipped paying it with their poverty. Since 2010 many kind hearted people supported for the education of 1000 poor students and livelihood of 15 teaching and non-teaching staff for these five years. abhaya also provided Uniforms, Notebooks, playing material and teaching aids. Parents, teachers and students all are happy with the efforts put in by us and abhaya foundation in imparting quality education.

My husband is in government service and there are high chances that he may be transferred to some other village soon. So we feel like there is no one efficient to run this school after us in line to the views of abhaya foundation. With this reason, we are planning to close this school by summer. Till date abhaya foundation might have spent over Rs.3 Lakhs on infrastructure of this school. As instructed by the foundation, we have remitted Rs.2.5 Lakhs and will try to deposit remaining Rs.50000/- as soon as possible. We thanks abhaya foundation for believing in us and taking over the school in tough times. - P. Padmavathi, Headmistress, abhaya Vignan School, Yerragunta.

BITS Hyderabad chapter of Nirmaan, established in 2012, with a strong volunteer base of more than 400 students has been engaged in activities pertaining to child education, women empowerment through gainful employment, and general community development.

Manthan 2015 hosted by Nirmaan Organisation. We had an opportunity to participate in the event representing abhaya Foundation. It was a nice experience. The day started with us, the abhaya team presenting about abhaya and its work. I gave the presentation and also had an opportunity to listen to other NGO's and their works. There was a group discussion with all the NGO's and it was a very worthwhile discussion. We have discussed about the problems which the NGOs are facing and how to overcome them.

We attended the seminar in the post lunch which was chaired by Padmasri Dr Saibaba Goud, Founder, Devnar Foundation, Prof Santha Sinha, Founder, MV Foundation and Smt Chaya Devi, Secretary, Telangana BJP. Their talks were very motivating and we also learnt many things from their speeches. we liked the speech of Prof. Santha Sinha which was very practical and clear

Later we have setup abhaya stall and explained all the visitors about abhaya and its work. The chief guests who came for the Conference also visited our stall and we spoke to them. When we are interacting with them, we really don't know much about them. But after knowing about them we felt amazed for the opportunity of interaction with such famous people. All in all it was a well spent day at ISB Hyderabad Campus interacting with other NGOs and knowing about them and also making them knowing about abhaya - S Naga Natya, Coordinator, abhaya Volunteers

Your advise made me to think about improving my skills

Wish to have another session

Very energetic

Highly Interactive

Was really useful

Unimagibable... 72hrs life with out smart phone away from Janaaranya at Dandakaranya.... Vedaadri (Ahobilam)... the abode of Lord Lakshmi Narasimha Svayabhoo moorthy...

With divine blessings of Lord... I could scale Vedaadri and had an opportunity to go to the top of Ugra Sthambham the Pillar from where Lord Narasimha appeared and killed demon king Hiranya Kasipu and blessed Prahlada.

This pillar mountain is 2800ft from Sea level... it took 3 hrs time to reach the top of it... trekking 12kms... from down.

Enjoyed the solitude away from all the technology... surrendered my self at thy feet of GOD.

Surrendered myself at the feet of GOD with prayers for all abhayans and Mission abhaya

We rescued her from committing suicide

Hope you remember we helped a poor couple Govidu and Varalakshmi. This is Govind's sister. Her in-laws live at Mydukur. Her husband Prasad died of unknown diseases about 2 months back. She and her 3 children are living life by selling small household articles in a trolley cart. They spent so much on curing Prasad, but could not save him. She approached me for help and I told that I will recommend this case to abhaya and will give whatever they sanction. Her son is studying 8th class, but she made him to help her in the business instead of sending him to school. I told them to be brave facing these unforeseen situations in life. She don't have a house, all the relatives are financially helpless. We just rescued her from committing suicide and provided assistance to their best. You are sending small amounts for all my requests. If you can adjust some amount to her, she will do her business. I request you to send whatever you feel appropriate. I feel blessed and think God will provide us good health with all these good works.- PV Subbaratnam (80years), Retd Hindi Pandit, Jammalamadugu, Cuddapah, AP

Humble journey from dependence to independence

The year 2010, when I was pursuing MCA used to think about my ambition - I A S . But there was no clarity, no guide, no money... Then I approached abhaya and they connected me to R Sridhar IRS. He further introduced me to Tirumala Kumar IRS. This is the turning point in my life. Tirumala Kumar sir personally guided me to start preparation. Later on he introduced to Y Satyanarayana sir in 2011.

As per their advice and with the financial support of abhaya I joined in RC REDDY IAS Study Circle in September 2011. Not only this, I was given opportunity to stay in ABHAYA VALUE CENTRE for my preparation. (ABHAYA VALUE CENTRE is for poor but meritorious students who are aspiring for higher studies and competitive exams) There I was given food, shelter and also monthly money support for books and materials.

With the inspiration from life experiences, guidance by elders and support from ABHAYA, I could clear Civil Services prelims-2012 in my very 1st attempt. abhaya provided all means for better preparation. Without ABHAYA I couldn't clear BANK PO, Intelligence Bureau, SSC-CGL. As I was aspiring for IAS, I couldn't join any of these posts. abhaya even supported my interest of preferences in jobs.

Between 2010 to 2012: I was entirely depended on ABHAYA for all my preparation. I skip my 2013 attempt for civils and unfortunately 2nd attempt in 2014 was not cleared. Even today I have two jobs awaiting: BANK PO & SSC-CGL (C). But, left them waiting and with passion for IAS, presently I am working as CIVIL SERVICE FACULTY in HSC & SAMATA, as it is useful for my preparation.

Now I am earning my livelihood to look after my family and also able to adjust for my preparation. This is my humble journey from dependence to independence; All this just not possible if ABHAYA would have not been with me for the last 4 to 5 years.

In my life, In this 2015, there will be a new turn to be taken on March 8th. My marriage with miss NAGADEVI is making me more responsible for IAS and Wife. There are reasons/justifications for this new turn/steps.

We have same priorities & VALUE compatibility. My preparation for CIVIL SERVICES will continue. I expect same moral support from ABHAYA further. Thank you very much for your valuable support. Finally, I cordially invite all our ABHAYANS to my marriage with Miss Nagadevi on march 8th, 2015. - M Mahesh, an IAS Aspirant, Hyderabad

IAS aspirant Mahesh's association with abhaya is of more than 5 years. Very bright young man who with a vision to be an IAS proceeded in life with many odds... abhaya stood beside him since his college days. Now, while he is preparing for Civil Services and also teaching for IAS Students at Hyderabad. He with the information to abhaya now got married to a software engineer Naga Devi who understood his passion and decided to travel with him as life partner. It is a matter of celebration to abhaya to see their union... both of them were blessed to march ahead in life with many gifts, wishes, dinner etc., We hope Mahesh IAS be a reality soon. Lets bless them... Lets love them... Lets care them... For making Mahesh IAS. Both of them joined as abhayaSoulDears with their monthly support. - CS Balachandra Sunku, Founder, abhaya

Just want to thank you personally for all the support in the case of Teena. I wouldn't have taken this work if there was no Abhaya. I came forward this request to you after seeing the wonderful support by abhaya to Mr. Vinod who lost his both legs in an accident. After the incredible results and the support given by abhaya to him, I just thought of bringing this request in front of abhaya.

It was really a great experience being a volunteer and main point of contact for Teena's case. It made me learn many things, which includes patience, point to point communication, motivating their parents etc., It's a whole new experience to me while talking to doctors, parents and donors!! The satisfaction which we get when we work selflessly cannot be compared with any other comforts

I don't think I am very much experienced in giving suggestions to others on volunteering but with my experience I can only tell one thing to every person who is having the will to serve poor is not that difficult, if we can do below things

- We must to have patience,
- Our communication should be accurate
- Take out at least 30min a day or two to spend time with the needy.
- Give regular updates to the donors which makes them happy and encourages them to support for more initiatives
- Will power and positive attitude should be a must

Thanks to abhaya once again!! Wish abhaya should stand for the people who are in needy forever!!... the learning is all mine - DV Raghav Annavarapu, Sr Member Technical, ADP, Hyderabad
